

PTCB EMPLOYER PROGRAM

Free program for pharmacy technician employers committed to advancing medication safety

Why join the PTCB Employer Program?

If you support PTCB and quality pharmacy technician certification, you will want to join to receive program benefits, including:

- Being first to receive PTCB news and information, including Employer Outlook
- Automatic eligibility for Sponsorship, a simple process that saves you time and money when paying for your employees' certification and recertification
- Bulk discounts on Official PTCB Practice Exams
- Free Bulk Verifications of employee certifications
- Performance reports on your employees' overall test results compared to the national average
- Welcome kit
- Recognition on PTCB's website — including your company logo — and in PTCB's newsletters and social media community

If the program is free, what's the catch?

There is none. We ask participants to complete a brief annual survey so PTCB can better serve you.

"We're proud to promote employee education and support professional advancement through the PTCB Employer Program. PTCB's Employer Sponsorship helps PillPack save time and stay organized, while helping our team achieve important certifications to grow their careers."

Emily Haugh, Pharmacist, PillPack

Who is eligible to join?

All pharmacy technician employers committed to quality certification are invited to join. More than 750 employers participate, and this number continues to grow. These employers represent all practice areas, including community (independent and chain) and health-system pharmacies. They are committed to developing a qualified technician workforce.

By choosing PTCB, you support quality certification and are assured your PTCB-Certified employees are credentialed by the nation's leading certifying body. PTCB Certification provides confidence and a sense of accomplishment for employees that benefits the patients they serve. If you are committed to advancing medication safety in your pharmacy, you will encourage your technician employees to achieve and maintain their PTCB Certification.

When you join the PTCB Employer Program, you are automatically eligible to become a Sponsor for free.

Why be a Sponsor?

Employers who become Sponsors save time and money.

- No advance payments
- No need to reimburse technicians
- No cumbersome paperwork
- No fees are charged to the Sponsor if a candidate chooses not to test after applying
